Regardless of Decision of Recount Supreme Court Case Argued Friday

STATE SECRETARY'S AUTHORITY IS INVOLVED

THE ULTERIOR MOTIVE

Of Anti Saloon League of Creating Public Sentiment, Charged By Former Governor Harmon—Wayne B. Wheeler Insists Secretary's Power is Implied if Not Expressed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, Nov. 21.—Regardless of what decision the supreme court gives on the question of whether the secretary of state has authority to order a recount of ballots on the home rule and prohibition amendments, argued before the court yesterday, indications today were that further action may be brought in that court to determine further legal points connected with the submission of the amendments.

It was intimated by dry leaders here today that if the supreme court holds no statute gives the secretary of state authority to consider charges of fraud in counting ballots, and subsequently to order ballots recounted, the secretary's authority for even submitting the amendments to the people originally, will be questioned by another suit in the supreme court. Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, refused to confirm the report of further contemplated action.

In arguing before the court yesterday, on the Anti-Saloon league's suit to mandamus Secretary Graves to order a recount in Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Lucas and Franklin counties, Mr. Wheeler admitted that there is no statute which explicitly gives the secretary of state power to consider charges of fraud in counting of ballots, or to demand recount. He held, however, that this authority was implied by the legal provision that the secretary of state shall publish the accurate results of a statewide election. If he must publish an accurate report, he must have means of investigating and discovering what the true results are, if mistakes in the count are charged. This was the substance of Mr. Wheeler's contention of implied power.

Now if the court refuses the writ of mandamus, and holds the secretary of state may act only as statutes specifically enjoin him to act, the anti-liquor forces may bring another suit to determine by what right he submitted the amendments. They maintain there is no law which provides machinery for submitting amendments initiated and submitted directly to the people, without first being considered by the legislature. The contention in the possible new action will be that the legislature provided means of

Seventy Thousand People Saw Contest in Greatest Arena in World

GOOD WEATHER FOR DEDICATION OF FIELD

HARVARD THE FAVORITE

In the Betting at Slight Odds Which Shortened as Game Time Approached—Tremendous Crowd Equalling Two Full Army Corps In Numbers Took Three Days to Assemble.

Final Score:
Harvard 36.
Yale 0.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 21.—The contest of the season on eastern football fields, the Harvard-Yale classic, was staged here today before a gigantic assembly as the dedicatory game of the new Yale bowl.

More than seventy thousand ardent followers of the game filled to the brim this latest and greatest of athletic arenas for the championship contest of 1914. It was a record crowd, bubbling over with intercollegiate rivalry and enthusiasm, as well as eagerness for what was anticipated would prove the last word in football strategy. Harvard was a slight favorite before the struggle began, although the improvement in the condition of the field after Thursday's storm narrowed the odds to nearly even money.

The forenoon weather conditions were entirely favorable for good football. The sky was clear and a light northwest breeze was puffing down from the Connecticut hills. It was snapping cold and the ground in the bowl was like asphalt early in the day.

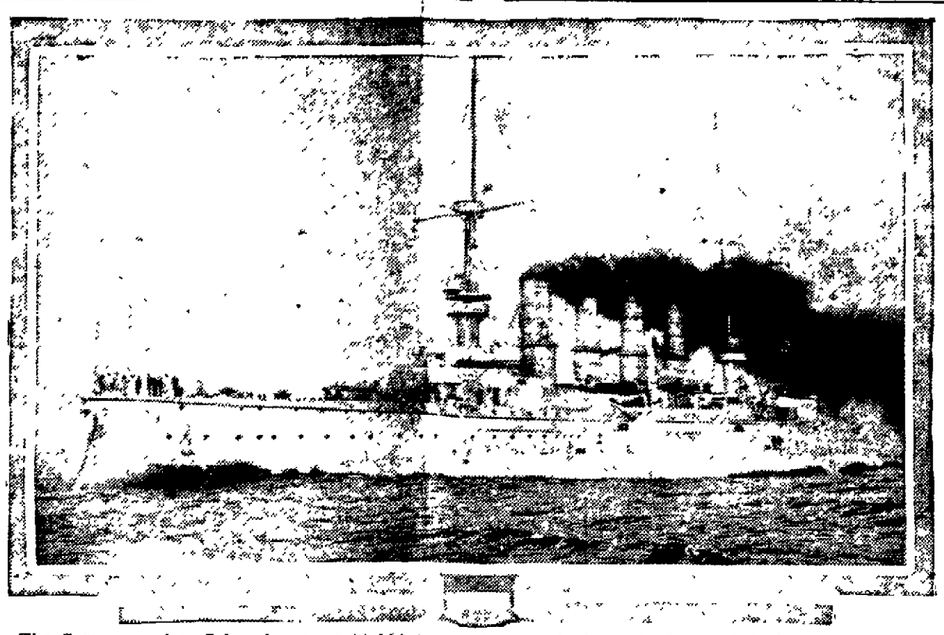

The forenoon was spent in welcoming the crowd to New Haven.

The gathering of so great a multitude, numbering nearly two full army corps, occupied practically three days, yet nine-tenths of those who came planned to leave within a few hours after the final whistle. The skirmish line reached Yale precincts on Thursday, the vanguard marched in yesterday afternoon and last night and today the main army stormed New Haven. The city quickly capitulated, and especially the storekeepers, hotel and restaurant proprietors, and flower venders.

From the railroad station, which was the principal portal to the city, stretching far out toward Yale field for more than six hours there was an almost unbroken procession of beribboned, beflagged and beflowered ticketholders. The trolley service out to German Cruiser Scharnhorst, Which Led In Battle Off Chili.

The German cruiser Scharnhorst, of 11,600 tons and a speed of twenty knots, led the Germans in the naval battle off the Chilian coast Nov. 1, when the British cruisers Good Hope and Monmouth were sunk. This is a part of the report made by Captain Luce of the cruiser Glasgow to the British admiralty from Rio de Janeiro, where his vessel is being repaired:

"The enemy, who had turned south, was now in a single line ahead and about twelve miles distant. The Scharnhorst and Gneisenau were in the lead. At 6:18 the speed was ordered up to seventeen knots and the flagship signalled to the Canopus, 'Am going to attack the enemy now.'

"At 7:30 the enemy opened fire at 12,000 yards, followed in quick succession by the Good Hope, the Monmouth, and the Glasgow. The two squadrons were now converging, each ship engaging the opposite number in the line. The growing darkness and the hazy spray of the head sea made firing difficult, particularly for the main deck guns of the Good Hope and Monmouth.

"It was now quite dark and both sides continued firing at flashes of the opposing guns. The Monmouth was badly down by the bow and turned away to get her stern to the sea, signalling the Glasgow to that effect."

OVER 5 1-2 HOURS IS TIME DIFFERENCE, AS GIVEN OFFICIALLY.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Nov. 21.—Actual difference in longitude between the official meridians of Paris and Washington is five hours, seventeen minutes and 36.658 seconds naval observatory officials announced today after completing their reduction of elaborate wireless observations, made through the wireless stations at Arlington and Eiffel tower, which constitutes the first direct determination of longitudinal differences between Washington and Europe.

KAISER'S MESSAGE TO ARCHITECTS IS FULL OF OPTIMISM.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Berlin, Nov. 21.—Via London—Emperor William's telegram to the Society of German Naval Architects follows:

"Your faithful labor in peace has contributed to our successes hitherto in war. I rejoice in the confidence and intelligence that has directed the activity of German industry, which, in these serious times, has shown itself strong in support for the Fatherland.

"May the Lord God continue to vouchsafe the success of our arms and the Fatherland."

GERMAN BODIES ARE BURNED IN BLAST FURNACE IN BELGIUM.

London, Nov. 21.—The newspaper Independence Belge, which has been published in London since the occupation of Brussels, has received news from Charleroi, Belgium, that the large blast furnaces near there is running night and day incinerating the corpses of German soldiers killed along the Yser line. The bodies of the soldiers are being brought to Charleroi by rail. The coal mines of Charleroi have been reopened, and the miners there are working two or three days a week.

Artillery Is Keeping Up Fitful Fire

Outside of Which the Pause, Made Advisable by the First Onslaught of Winter, Would Almost Lead One to Believe That Armies Which Have Been at One Another's Throats, Had Declared a Truce.

GERMANS AFTER RETREAT OF WEEK AGO, TURN AT BAY

After Coming to a Position Commanded By Their Own Railroad System, and Sweeping Back the Russian Cavalry, Push Czar Nicholas' Army Back Between the Vistula and Warta, Where They Are Expected to Make Their Stand In the Second Phase of the Eastern Campaign.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Nov. 21.—The warring armies on both battlefronts seem today to have come to a pause as if an interval were necessary for them to solve the new difficulties of their positions raised in by the unexpected severity of the first onslaught of winter.

In West Flanders reports from many sources indicate that all the military operations have been completely suspended, while along the rest of the western line only desultory artillery duels prevent the front from giving the impression that a truce exists.

A new crop of stories has arisen that the Germans are sending heavy guns and submarines by rail to Belgium, destined for the coast, while other reports declare that long trains, capable all told of moving 200,000 men, are going prepared to take German reinforcements to the eastern front.

Vienna and Berlin agree that nothing decisive has occurred in Poland, while Petrograd claims that the German offensive between the Warta and Vistula have been checked so definitely that the Russians have been enabled to resume the aggressive, an attitude which they signalized by the capture of a battery of German artillery to the northwest of Lodz. This, if true, indicates the possibility that the Germans are in danger of being outflanked. Nevertheless, it is apparent that the two armies are facing each other and waiting for the next move in what may prove to be one of the most decisive battles of the eastern campaign.

A week ago the Germans were retreating from Warsaw. They turned at bay on reaching the territory controlled by their own strategic railroad system, and brushing aside the Russian cavalry, they began to push back the army of Emperor Nicholas until a position between the Vistula and the Warta was reached. This is the point where the experts predicted that the Germans would make their stand on the retreat from Warsaw. Now the reoccupation of this line probably will mean that the second phase of the Polish campaign will proceed on the more or less expected lines.

The cold weather is having its effect on the eastern front contrary to the prevailing opinion, General von Hindenberg maintains that this will favor the Germans because the Russians will not be able to dig themselves in when the ground is frozen.

Berlin and Paris Issue Reports, Different in Tenor

FRENCH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Paris, Nov. 21.—The official communication given out in Paris this afternoon reads as follows:

"The day of November 20, generally speaking, was similar to the two preceding days.

"In Belgium our artillery at Nieuport secured the advantage over the enemy. From Dixmude to the south of Ypres there was intermittent cannonading on our part and theirs.

"At Holleheke, two attacks of German infantry were immediately repulsed.

"In the region of the Aisne and in Champagne the advantage gained by our batteries over the artillery of the enemy has become more marked, and has prevented the Germans from continuing the construction of certain trenches begun by them.

"In the Argonne we blew up certain of the enemy's trenches.

"In the vicinity of Verdun and in the Vosges we have made progress. At certain points we have established our trenches at less than thirty yards from the German position."

GERMAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Nov. 21.—By wireless to Sayville, L. I.—Included in the information given out in official quarters to the press today is the following:

"Netherland newspapers have expressed their appreciation at the efforts of the German authorities to restore normal conditions in Belgian towns.

"Reports received here from Copenhagen set forth that the French government has informed the Greek government that France will be able to pay only 20,000,000 francs ($4,000,000) on the second installment of the Grecian loan of 250,000,000 francs ($50,000,000) issued in Paris last year.

"In the eastern war theater the operations are still further developed. The pursuit of the defeated enemy who was driven back through Mlawa and Plock, continues. Our offensive at Lodz has made progress.

"In the region to the east of Czentochowa our troops are fighting by the side of our allies and have gained ground."

DECKER SAYS FIRING WAS NOT HOSTILE

REPORT FROM COMMANDER OF CRUISER TENNESSEE, IN WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY.

But Was Not Made Public Until this Afternoon at It Was Contradictory.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 21.—After an announcement from the White House today that word had come from Captain Decker of the cruiser Tennessee that the firing of the Turkish forts at Smyrna upon the cruiser's launch on November 17 was not hostile, Secretary Daniels announced that a portion of Captain Decker's first report had not been made public when at first as it was considered contradictory. He announced that Captain Decker's dispatch, reporting the firing, contained the words "act not hostile but unfriendly."

The navy department announcement omitted the contradictory phrase, according to Mr. Daniel's, in order to verify it, and today came word that the message was correct as originally sent. Secretary Daniels was unable to explain its meaning and said that it seemed to him an expression of opinion by the captain of the Tennessee, without exact knowledge of what took place on shore.

At the White House the statement issued said Captain Decker had reported the firing as not a hostile act, the view being taken that the first part of the phrase meant that the shots were not aimed to take effect, but as a warning because the port of Smyrna was mined and closed.

This was the statement that Secretary Tumulty issued after a conference with President Wilson.

"The public already knows what happened. Namely, a boat from the Tennessee tried to enter the harbor, a harbor which the Turkish govern-

EXTREME TENSION IN GERMANY AS TO EASTERN FRONT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Nov. 21.—The correspondent in Berlin of the Central News has sent the following dispatch by way of Copenhagen:

"All of Germany is in a condition of extremen tension, awaiting the result of the great battle on the eastern front. The Russian forces are estimated at 900,000 men. The Germans control all the roads to Novoe Georgiewsk and Warsaw. The battle centers at Lodz, where the Germans and Austrians are in excellent position, while new Austrian forces are advancing from the south. The Russians are being attacked from three sides."

PREDICTIONS OF WARMER WEATHER FROM WASHINGTON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 21.—Warmer weather for the east and south was the prediction of the official forecasters today when they scanned reports of the dying cold snap. The New England storm has whisked northeastward over the Canadian maritime provinces and in the upper lake region another had died away.

"No other depressions appear within the field of observations" was the official way of saying it looks like nice weather over Sunday. Last night's frost through the east gulf and south Atlantic states was generally killing. There was light frost as far south as Miami, Fla.

SUFFRAGISTS WILL TRY AGAIN TO SEE PRESIDENT WILSON

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 21.—Undismayed by President Wilson's former refusals to support a constitutional amendment for woman's suffrage, leaders of women's Democratic suffrage organizations are renewing efforts for another audience at the White House. The question of receiving the women has not yet been placed before the president.

SIX DAY RIDERS AHEAD OF RECORD

New York, Nov. 21.—The swift pace maintained during the early morning by riders in the six day bike race carried the leaders nearly twenty-five miles ahead of the previous record at 8 o'clock this morning and had cut down the field to eight teams, six of which were tied for first place at 2506 miles and four laps.

Short Session of Reichstag In December is Expected to Vote 5 Billion Marks Credit

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, Nov. 20, via London, Nov. 21.—The coming session of the Reichstag, which opens on December 2, is expected to be of short duration. It is probable that it will only concern itself with the voting of a new five-billion marks credit and the ratification of the various emergency laws promulgated by the Bundesrath. This is to be accomplished, if possible, without debate. Neither the budget nor new taxation proposals are expected to be submitted. The budget will be laid before the Reichstag at its session in February.

The steady progress reported day by day from the eastern theatre of the war is most encouraging to the military critics and the public and little anxiety for the safety of the frontier districts is now manifested.

Major Moraht expects full success for General von Hindenburg and General Dankl. He thinks the heavy Russian losses in killed and prisoners has undoubtedly shaken the morale of the Russians.

The continuance of the concentric attacks on the north, west and south, he holds, places the Russians in an uncertain position.

The troops which threatened the east Prussian frontier at Soldau and its vicinity are continuing their retreat, apparently towards the crossings of the Vistula and the Bug at Novoe Georgiewsk.

The wintry weather in the war theatres is considered to be of the greatest importance in the field operations, especially in the inundate district of Flanders. Today's reports show that it is colder in the southwest and in the northwest. North Metz and Brussels report a temperature below the freezing point. The snowfall in the northwest has ceased, but is fairly general in the east and probably will continue for several days so that the battle of Poland will be fought out on snow-covered fields.

Check Attempt To Go Through Russian Lines

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Nov. 21. "The German attempts to break through the Russian armies in Poland have sustained a severe check which, according to present indications, is likely to have decisive consequence for the enemy," says a dispatch from the Petrograd correspondent of the Times. The message continues:

"The official report of the capture of a battery northwest of Lodz, is extremely significant, suggesting the probability of a successful Russian flanking movement from the direction of Piotrkow. News was received last night of the arrival of large Russian reinforcements which would probably account for the reverses the Germans sustained."

United States Congress May Sail On Battleship Fleet To Panama-Pacific Exposition

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—When the fleet of battleships which will come from the Atlantic seaboard to the Panama Pacific exposition via the Panama canal reaches San Francisco next spring, it may have as passengers besides President Wilson, the entire congress of the United States.

Such at least is the plan broached by Congressman Julius Kahn, in an address before the Chamber of Commerce last night. Mr. Kahn said he would ask the mayor and supervisors of San Francisco, the exposition committee and California's legislature to issue formal invitations to congress to come here in 1915.

"Then," said Mr. Kahn, "I will try to have congress accept these invitations in a formal joint resolutions."

We shall be glad to welcome all who are interested in these topics next Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Those who are not now especially interested will find something to open their eyes in the services that evening.

"Might Have Been, If—."
Taking for a text Agrippa's words to Festus concerning the great apostle "This man might have been set at liberty if he had not appealed unto Caesar." Miss Rudy traced a procession of "might have beens" throughout God's Word, in her address last night—men and women who began well but whose lives were broken upon the rock of disobedience and sin. Hell is filled with "might have beens," it is the wail of a lost soul. If men and women embraced their present opportunities there would be no eternal regrets.

Several responded to the invitation to come now that God is specially pleading in these revival days, and they were saved.

This has been a week of much blessing in Plymouth Congregational church and much is anticipated for the coming week.

Sunday's program is a full one. There will be special messages in song in all the services. Miss Rudy will speak at 10:45 o'clock on "The Spirit-filled Life," in the afternoon at 2:30 on "The Christian's Blessed Hope," and it is expected the climax will be reached in the evening evangelistic service at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend these services.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and the Ministerial Association committee has arranged that Rev. Henshaw will preach the Thanksgiving sermon for the "North End," in the Maple Avenue chapel. Let all who can, atten this service, at 10:30 a. m.—W. H. Baker, pastor.

Always Preparing for Something Better

(WRITTEN FOR THE ADVOCATE BY JAMES R. HOPLEY.)

Ah, well! for us all some sweet hope lies deeply buried from human eyes; and in the hereafter, angels may roll the stone from its grave away."

Education in the church means appreciation of things which we believe will obtain in "The Eternal City."

Unless we are hungry for the message, enjoy the music, are benefitted by prayers and spoken word, we will scarcely get enjoyment in the great hereafter; "where congregations ne'er break up and Sabbaths never end."

Enjoyment of church life here and now is sufficient to recommend such association in this life; but our need of being ready to slip aside the filmy veil which separates us from "the other side," and to recognize the best in this life, because we want to be able to appreciate the best in the life to come, is the chief reason for coming together.

There is music in the Sunday morning bells; there is sweetness in the clanging, as it swells; There's a volume of deep pleasure, in the gladness at the measure, as the swelling of the bells a message tells.

It is our pleasure and benefit to respond to the inviting chimes on the Sunday morning breeze, and get refreshment and satisfaction from our contact with things which prepare us for life now and hereafter.

Sunday's services represent to us much or little, however, being dependent on our attitude, and spirit of participation.

If we attend church for worldly or superficial reasons, we only get superficial value from the practice.

If the prayer and spoken word appeal to us, if we realize our need for mental uplift and spiritual food, we will probably find much in any sermon preached in this city or vicinity.

Church attendance is, after all, a personal matter; we get whatever value from it we, by our spirit, put into it.

There's a glory as the organ's music peals; to our hearts a sweet repose so softly steals; in it's swelling, in it's gladness, how it drives away our sadness; as a perfect thought and spirit it reveals.

The service is there for us! The participation in the spirit of the service is our own happy privilege.

As man to man, as human to human, we must value the service for what it brings to us; as spiritual beings we must gather strength from the services of Sunday to build and benefit us for needed power.

Every church bell rings out to you an invitation. Listen, participate and be benefitted! Why not heed the call?

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Harry V. Hennes, formerly general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Oskaloosa, Iowa, made the Newark association a call last Saturday as he was passing through the city on his way to take up the secretaryship of the association at Mansfield. J. I. Muffley, former general secretary of Mansfield, has accepted the secretaryship at Newcastle, Pa.

Four brand new members have enrolled this week. Glenn O'Hara, E. W. Webb, Wm. Aispach and Ralph Meyer.

The English classes for foreign born men have over fifty enrolled now. A picture taken Monday night shows twenty-eight faces. New classes will be started soon at the Riverside building.

The Tuesday evening Bible class and supper had an attendance of 14 boys this week. General Secretary Johnson talked to the boys on "the need of using all helps for the building of a good man."

The Intermediate Bible gymnasium class met for a social supper last night. They enjoyed a fine talk by Dr. Essington on the subject, "Some Things a Boy Should Know."

The Y. W. C. A. used Taylor hall Friday evening for a missionary lecture by Miss Alice Shields of India.

The advisory committee of the Christian Men's Union met in the building on Tuesday evening. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Robert Boyd; vice president, O. K. Criswell; secretary, Frank L. Johnson; treasurer, A. J. Kennedy. The next men's meeting will be on Sunday, Nov. 29. Rev. Morgan Lee Storke will be the speaker. Subject and place will be announced later.

General Secretary Johnson spent Monday afternoon with the division safety committee of the B. & O. railroad, in their regular monthly meeting held at the B. & O. offices.

A card received from H. E. McMaster, former assistant secretary, says he is heading the department of English at the Highland Park military academy, Chicago. This school has a fine equipment at Lake Geneva, Wis., also.

Shop meetings were held at the B. & O. shops and at Heisey's on Thursday and Friday. The attendance was good at both places and a fine spirit prevailed. Miss Rudy spoke at the Heisey factory and Rev. John W. Christie at the B. & O. Mrs. Carl Jones and Miss Mary Hughes assisted with the music.

Thanksgiving morning at 10 o'clock if there are enough entries to warrant it, there will be a two mile race for all comers over 16 years of age. The fee is only 25 cents and must be in by Monday night. Any one interested may enter whether a member or not. Three small medals will be awarded.

Basketball season will begin immediately after Thanksgiving. There will be teams from each class organized. Any man who attends regularly the ordinary class work will be eligible to play. If you like to play basketball come in and we will have a place for you. There is promise of some fast games between the different classes.

The new business men's class on Wednesdays and Fridays, from 5:30 to 5:15 is now under way. There will be something doing when the volley ball matches start between this class and the 5:30 business men's class. There is room for more men, so come and have the fun. Some of us haven't played for ten years, but we try it.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody usss "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. Agents, Hall's Drug Store.

If it wuzn't fer folks that haint got no credit ther wouldn't be thirty-five cents in circulation. Mrs. Lafe Bud has granted her husband a third trial.

It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel a pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender, swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rehumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

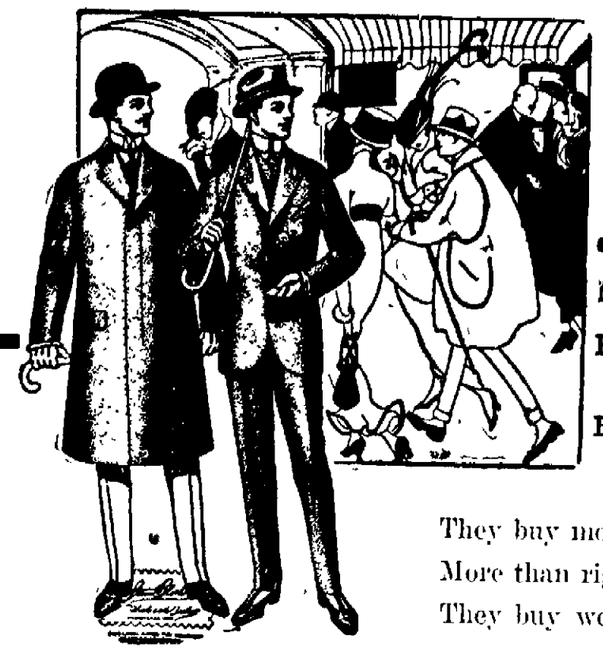

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Giving to the Needy.

Suggestions have been made in many quarters that this year Christmas presents be given merely to children and dependents, and that the money saved be devoted to helping the needy and suffering, either at home or in Europe.

It is hardly likely that the customary offerings of love and intimacy can be checked even under present circumstances. At the same time, this is a year when embroidered handkerchief-holders and plush photograph albums will go hard. Also it is a time when overcoats and sweaters and barrels of flour and apples and all practical useful articles ought to be in unusual demand as gifts.

There is always too much swapping and trading at Christmas, too many lavish offerings to people already living in superfluity, too little of that thoughtful generosity that seeks out in their isolation, the hungry, who are usually too self-respecting to reveal their own need.

Knowledge of Prices.

The mayor of the city of New York recently appointed a committee to investigate questions of food supply, and its executive committee has just made a report. One of the principal points made was that a great lack of knowledge has been found among housekeepers, as to the proper prices to be paid for food. It was also stated that the daughters of well-to-do families are apt to be brought up without any knowledge of housekeeping.

It used to be said that the farmer was the best informed business man of the community, as he had to know the price of everything. The old-time housewife was invariably aware if eggs were up two cents a dozen. If she felt a price was unreasonable, she didn't buy.

Much of the neighborly discussion some of us used to hear as children related to the question of prices of ordinary household commodities, whether beef had risen or butter fallen. No man could operate a business unless he knew what his raw material cost or ought to cost. Similarly the home is a business proposition, and will be costly unless the buyer has a keen idea of normal prices.

Some people consider too much mention of money to be sordid. But this is a practical world of realities, and the home-manager needs to know what she is up against.

A woman once remarked that her butcher always gave her only the lump price for the piece. When she asked how much per pound it was, his arithmetic was either too faulty, or he was reluctant to tell her the figure. A purchase and sale can hardly be considered to be well-made for both parties, unless each understands exactly the price.

This is why newspaper advertisers always do well to state exact prices in their notices. Thereby they not merely interest many more readers, but they assist in educating the public in a vital matter of home economies.

The girls who are knitting for the suffering Belgians are not merely helping on a worthy cause, but they are relieving their men friends of possible embarrassment at Christmas.

Yale has to have a 69,000 stadium to accommodate its football crowds, but that amount of seating capacity will not be needed for the intercollegiate debating contests.

About this time of the year the small boy becomes profoundly interested in the study of Ezekiel as conducted by the Sunday schools.

Mr. Taft urges lawyers to accept political office, but he failed to cite any instances of lawyers who had refused same.

Over in Europe they propose to celebrate Thanksgiving day by making about 10,000 more widows.

If you ask your wife to carve the turkey, the bird will not probably be deposited in someone's lap.

Anyone could be president of Mexico. All he has to do is to resign.

Mother celebrates Thanksgiving, like other holidays, by getting dinner.

Spirit of the Press

Introduction of Turkey.

Germany assumed a most serious responsibility when she brought Turkey into this war. Turkey was not intrigued into the conflict in order to throw her organized military strength against the forces of Great Britain, France and Russia. She was brought in to declare a Holy War and set Mohammedan against non-Mohammedan. War of that kind cannot be localized. It is the twentieth-century equivalent of the eighteenth-century practice in North America of inciting the Indians against the colonists. So long as Turkey makes war against Great Britain, France and Russia, the United States is neutral; but the United States cannot be expected to remain indifferent if Turkish forts wantonly fire upon American warships or if American citizens are murdered by Turkey's fanatical subjects.—New York World.

Woman's Acumen.

A woman who was defeated for the presidency of an equal suffrage association in an Ohio town went over to the association opposed to equal suffrage and became president of that. And yet the claim is set up that woman is not man's equal in political acumen.—Minneapolis Journal.

Incidentally, it may be noted that the Tennessee carries 16-inch guns.—New York World.

Belgium, at least, does not have to explain to the world what it is fighting for.—Springfield Republican.

At all events Europe will shortly have something to worry about besides overpopulation.—Washington Post.

There is less crime in Great Britain since the war, says a dispatch. No wonder. Plain, ordinary crime stands appalled and abashed at the spectacle of war.—Chicago Herald.

A defeated candidate for congress in Massachusetts reports that he "received nothing, promised nothing, expended nothing, and got nothing," which seems to lay bare cause and effect. But were ever books more perfectly balanced? — Indianapolis News.

When the boomlet for Colonel George W. Goethals as a presidential candidate reaches his ears he will probably call to mind a certain Dewey who was also struck by one, and will then promptly take to the woods.—New York Sun.

When a town man meets a stranger he tries to impress him with his own importance. When a farmer meets a stranger he watches him carefully and counts his money as soon as the stranger goes away.

Mental Originality.

Anatole France coined a phrase which may have the breath of life in it. "What is madness after all," he says, "but a sort of mental originality?" He writes that Charles Dickens always liked madmen and cites among the madmen good Mr. Dick in "David Copperfield," whose innocence is described with such tender grace. "I believe," writes the great Frenchman of letters, "that Dickens had more feeling than any other writer. I believe that his novels are as beautiful as the love and pity that inspired them. I regard 'David Copperfield' as a new gospel. I believe, lastly, that Mr. Dick is a 'sensible' madman, because the only reason left to him is the reasoning of the heart, and that is hardly ever received. What matter if he does fly kites on which he has written some reflections concerning the death of King Charles I? He is benevolent, he wishes ill to no one, and that is a piece of wisdom to which many sane men do not so easily attain as he."

A Tale For Philatelists.

A story of the late Mr. Stanley Gibbons, the famous stamp dealer, is told in the London Times. A West Indian postmaster once returned his money order, stating that the stamp he had ordered did not exist, but the letter containing this statement was prepaid with a copy of the stamp in question.

Passing of the Romany Dialect.

The Romany dialect, so great loved by Borrow, is said to be now dying out among English gypsies, one of the few families which still cherish it being the Woods, whose tents and caravans may be found by the rivers and roads of north Wales. The Woods preserve many stories of their earliest known progenitor, who flourished about the beginning of the eighteenth century. According to their traditions, "he always rode on horseback on a blood horse, would not sleep in the open, but in barns; wore a three cocked hat with gold lace, a red silk coat, a waistcoat embroidered with green leaves, had half crowns for buttons on his coat, sported white, breeches gayly decked with ribbons, pumps with silver buckles and spurs, a gold watch and chain and two gold rings." From the description one gathers the gypsy's idea of a howling swell.—London Chronicle.

Indian Jugglers.

Magicians and jugglers were found among the Indians by the Jesuit missionaries as early as 1613, and they were common among all the Algonquin tribes, and Charlevoix mentions them among the Iroquois in 1635. The Spaniards met them in Mexico and South America.

OLD STANDBYS.

In cozy inglenooks we read the recent books, of which there are a million, which tells how Reggie boy assures his future joy by wedding lovely Lillian. The weird detective tale, whose plot, though slightly stale, in every chapter thickens; and every now and then, tired out, we turn again, to Thackeray and Dickens. Ods fish, and eke gadzooks! What endless piles of books the publishers are printing! The stories "true to life," which treat of erring wife, at sinful manners hinting; the yarns of rounders bold, whose reckless arms enfold the painted chorus chickens; and, yeary, sad and sore, at last we turn once more to Thackeray and Dickens. We find the raw romance which deals with high finance, of hunches and of hunchers; the western type of rot, where hamlets are kept hot by boozy cattle punchers. The books are piled in ricks, the tales of politics, which give us slender pickin's; and ever and anon, we turn with stifled yawn, to Thackeray and Dickens. We long for books that count, for stories that amount to something more than tinder; the volumes we receive are only fit to heave outdoors, through door or winder. The publishers won't pay much heed to what we say, they all ignore our kickin's; and when for Books we yearn, we simply have to turn to Thackeray and Dickens.

There are several kinds of charity. But the real kind is to remember that a dime will do a hungry man more good than $10 worth of advice.

The Managing Editor of the Universe doesn't listen to every petition sent in. But he always answers the plea of the fellow who first does all he can to help himself and then asks for assistance.

The old-fashioned boy who used to have to paddle his own canoe now has a son who owns a motor boat.

It is mighty hard for an ordinary man to tell the difference between Dignity and a Grouch.

Women wouldn't be so militant and independent if they only realized that their helplessness helps them more than anything else.

A fellow seldom gets a two-spot when he needs one to make a straight or fill his hand. But he is sure to get the duce from his wife when he goes home after the game.

Pretty Lazy.

The very laziest man recently encountered conducts a shoe store in a little town. A woman entered his shop one day and said she wanted to buy a pair of shoes. The lazy man, who was sitting on a box at one end of his establishment, looked at her, yawned wearily, and then said: "I caint wait on you today. Come in some time when I'm standin' up."—Argonaut.

A Restful Fall.

"I had a fall last night which rendered me unconscious for six hours."

"Really! Where did you fall?"

"I fell asleep."

INJURED MAN IS IMPROVING BUT TRIAL DELAYED

Although Charles Starr, attacked yesterday while at work in the Alspach harness shop, is improving at the Sanitarium, he was not able to appear in court Saturday morning to file charges against James Werts, 19, held for the assault.

At the Sanitarium it was stated that the harness maker was still very weak, due to the loss of blood and the shock of the encounter with his assailant. Besides the scalp wounds, which laid the skull bare, he had a small cut on one of his fingers.

It has not been determined whether the assailant used a knife or some other weapon in his attack on Starr. Police Chief Sheridan visited the Sanitarium Saturday morning and had an interview with Starr but the injured man was still unable to give any connected account of the trouble.

Werts Friday afternoon admitted that he had an argument with Starr over the price of halters, but further than that he would admit nothing.

Police Chief Sheridan Saturday filed an affidavit charging Werts with assault with intent to wound. He probably will be arraigned Monday morning before Mayor Bigbee. He is still confined in a cell at the city prison.

Hand Grenades Often Used In Close Fighting

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, via London, Nov 21.—The correspondent of the Zeitung Am Mittag, visited Dixmude while that town still was under heavy bombardment. In a dispatch to his paper he tells of the things that he observed there.

The sky was literally covered with smoke rings from shrapnel, he says The enemy was commencing to waver under the steady succession of assaults. The allies' fire was no longer well directed, and as the German preparations were well made the German losses in the assaults usually were relatively small

The captured trenches, says the correspondent, were magnificently built of reinforced concrete with sandbag breastworks stands for machine guns and a novel type of revolver cannon which throws short range grenades. Such trenches cover the whole country and when one is captured the enemy retires to the next The fighting is often at such close range that hand-grenades are employed most effectively The presence of the latest French and English newspapers in the trenches, says the correspondent, shows that the allied soldiers are being kept informed.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The bears had an advantage in the wheat market today owing to a sharp break in prices reported from Argentina. Rosario dispatches told of a decline of two cents on account of better weather for the harvest and there was a setback of 1½ cents at Buenos Aires. However, it was said to have begun raining again in parts of Argentina and this fact tended to check selling here. For the time being, the market seemed to pivot chiefly, if not altogether, on the outlook for or against a good yield in Argentina. After opening ⅛ to ¾ lower, prices underwent a moderate additional sag.

Clear cold weather that promised to increase the crop movement had a bearish influence on corn. Rural offerings, however, were only fair. The opening which varied from the same as last night to ⅜ down, was followed by a period of steadiness within the initial range.

Export houses picking up scattering lots made the oats market relatively firm. On the whole, though, trade was light.

Provisions ruled steady in line with quotations for hogs. Packers seemed disposed to sell on the hard spots in the market.

Obituary

Mrs. Vail's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Avis Vail, who died Thursday afternoon at the City hospital, will be held Saturday afternoon from the Bazler & Bradley chapel in North Fourth street. The son, William Coan, her only surviving relative, arrived from Mt. Clair, N. J., Saturday morning.

William B. Snelling.

William B. Snelling, 84 years old, for many years a resident of Licking county, died Friday night about 10:30 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Parr, 72 Gainor avenue, Franklin addition, where he was visiting. His death was not unexpected, because of his advanced age. Mr. Snelling came to Newark two weeks ago with his wife, for a visit with relatives, and was taken ill while at Mrs. Parr's home.

He was born July 4, 1830, in Shenandoah county, Va., and came to Ohio with his father when a small boy. At the age of 20 years he was united in marriage to Miss Lavina Lamp, who survives him. To this union were born eleven children, eight of whom are still living. They are: Mrs. Frank House, Mrs. George Orr, Mrs. James Parr, Mrs. L. A. Dusthimer, C. J. Snelling, J. E. Snelling, E. S. Snelling and W. C. Snelling, besides a large number of grandchildren. One brother, two half brothers, and two half sisters also survive. They are: Henry Snelling of Columbus, Webster Snelling of Amsterdam, Preston Snelling of Newark, Mrs. Crave Fulk and Mrs. William Fulk of Licking township.

Mr. Snelling as a faithful and consistent church member and frequently during his last illness he expressed his preparedness for death.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Fairmount church. Burial in Fairmount cemetery.

Rev. Z. K. Holiday.

A. B. Painter of the postoffice, received a long-distance message telling of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Rev. Z. K. Holiday, of Thurston, O., which occurred this morning at 9:15 a. m.

Rev Holiday is well-known to many in Licking county, and his friends are numbered by his acquaintances. Funeral services will be held at Thurston, O., Tuesday, November 24, at 10 o'clock a. m.

We wish to extend thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, Bessie Riggleman; also Rev. Ward and singers. Pallbearers and floral offerings. Mother, Sister and offerings. Mother, Sister and Brother. 11-21

ENJOYABLE

SESSION OF NEWARK MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION AT WARDEN, FRIDAY NIGHT.

Principal Speaker Was a Columbus Man, and Others Made Short Addresses.

Members of the Newark Merchants' Association, with a few invited guests to the number of sixty-two, enjoyed an interesting session on Friday night at the Hotel Warden, when all were entertained with a banquet.

During the evening music was furnished by the Marsh orchestra and following the menu, a number of talks were given, the meeting being presided over by Mr. A. R. Lindorf, president of the association, who acted as toastmaster. The principal address was delivered by Mr. H. Sullivan, secretary of the Merchants' Association of Columbus, and he talked on "Organization."

Short talks were given by Messrs. W. H. Mazey, A. Schiff, C. H. Spencer, J. C. Krieg, F. S. Neighbor, A. S. Stephan, Frank D. Hall, Walter Sperry, C. Harrington Davis and J. H. Johnson.

The appointments at the banquet were delightful, the tables being arranged with cut flowers, and a delicious menu was served.

The Newark Merchants' Association was organized last May, and its membership is made up of the leading merchants of the city who, through co-operation, strive for the best in business methods and business progress. The association now has a membership of fifty-two—seven new members having been taken in on Friday evening.

NO MAIL DELIVERY THANKSGIVING DAY

As Thanksgiving Day is a National Holiday there will be no mail delivery on that day from the Newark Postoffice. The carriers and clerks are entitled to the holiday, we kindly request the public to co-operate.

J. H. NEWTON,
Postmaster.

Mrs. George Willy, residing two miles southeast of Wilkin's Corner, was brought to the City hospital in the Bazler & Bradley ambulance, Friday afternoon for treatment.

VILLA'S TROOPS TAKE QUARETARO; NO RESISTANCE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Nov. 21.—Provisional President Gutierrez with thirty members of the Aguas Calientes convention, have arrived in San Luis Potosi and General Villa's troops have taken Queretaro without resistence, according to official telegrams today to the state department.

Administration officials reiterated again today that the state of affairs in Mexico had not changed plans for the evacuation of Vera Cruz, and that according to all present plans Major General Funston's forces would be withdrawn on November 23.

BLANCO REMAINS IN MEXICO CITY. EXPECTING VILLA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—It is learned on the highest authority that General Lucio Blanco will remain in the capital to act as the agent through whom the new government will take over the reins. If necessary he will defend the inhabitants from the attacks of any of the three parties, but the opinion is expressed, generally, that the adherents of Carranza, Zapata and Villa will treat through General Blanco, thus making the change a bloodless one.

General Villa is expected here within a week.

The Parrot's Threat.

Among the countless presents sent to Victoria by her subjects early in her reign was a parrot from a bird fancier at Bristol: "Poll was too shy on her arrival at court to speak, but when Victoria, struck with the beautiful plumage and fine symmetry of the newly arrived guest, entered, with great condescension, into conversation with her, Poll's shyness wore off, and she suddenly screamed, 'If you don't send £20 I'll go back.' The queen sent the £20—'an inducement to all teachers to impart profitable instruction to their pupils.'"—"Married Life of Queen Victoria."

POLICE ARREST ONE MEMBER OF BLACKHAND GANG

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cleveland, Nov. 21.—Police early today arrested one of two men suspected of the attempted murder Thursday night of Charles Amato, his wife Mary and daughter Margaret, and who yesterday fired a shot at Mrs. Amato while she was at work in the kitchen of her home in Orange avenue.

Mrs. Amato some time ago was a witness in police court against members of an alleged blackhand society. Although she furnished information that resulted in arrest and conviction of these men she refused to go on the witness stand expressing fear that she would be murdered while giving testimony. Since that time, she told the police, demands have been made on her husband for money and several attempts have been made on the lives of members of the family.

"Ready Money."

The management of the Victoria theatre announces the international comedy triumph, "Ready Money," James Montgomery's comedy of love, romance and thrills, which will be seen here for the first time

It is said to be swift in action, full of humorous situations and altogether

ELMER H. BROWN, With the Hall Players.

one of the most entertaining of American comedies staged in many years. While it contains a love story of tender grace and charm it is declared to be a laugh from the rise of the curtain on a penniless hero until it falls on a prosperous and happy man and the woman he is to marry.

"Ready Money" has been highly praised as a smashing comedy hit by the critics of Chicago, New York, London and Boston. When it was produced in London last August a year ago, the Daily Express said: "If all the plays to come this season are as happy and as interesting, no playgoer need complain." Matthew White, jr., writing in Munsey's Magazine for October last, said, "Ready Money' holds interest from curtain-lift to tag."

That a man cannot succeed without a woman's help is one of the morals to be drawn. Had not Stephen Baird, the hero, been in love with the right kind of a girl, he would never have endured hardships and bent his energies as he did to winning the fortune which brings him happiness and a wife.

Grace Tyler is very much in love with Stephen Baird and Grace's mother objects to Stephen, further more, who decides that her daughter shall never marry Stephen. There seems nothing the matter with the young man except that he is discouraged and down-hearted at his ill luck. It doesn't give Stephen much satisfaction to reflect that the mother of his beloved is unreasonable. He casts about for something that will allow him to overcome parental difficulties, and the manner of his doing so makes up one of the most successful comedies in years. Seats now selling—10c, 20c and 30c.

Colored Singers.

The Williams Colored Singers, a company of eight, gave an enjoyable concert at the High School auditorium, Friday evening, under the auspices of the local Order of Moose. Owing to many counter attractions and the extreme cold weather the audience was not as large as it otherwise would have been.

A pleasing program was rendered as a chorus and was followed by a male quartet and then a ladies quartet. Negro melodies, ragtime, sentimental and comic songs constituted two hours of entertainment.

MAY ABOLISH PAY OF PARLIAMENT DURING THE WAR

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Nov. 21.—J. F. P. Rawlinson, unionist member of parliament from Cambridge University, has given notice of his intention to move in the house of commons a resolution providing that the salaries of members of parliament be discontinued, while the salaries of ministers are to be reduced to the basis of those given in 1906. The resolution recited that this action is taken in view of the drain on the finances of the country.

Members of parliament get a salary of 400 pounds ($2,000). Such payment was provided for in August, 1911, when a resolution to that effect, introduced by David Lloyd George, the chancellor of exchequer, was adopted. Previously members had served without pay.

The salaries of members of the cabinet range from 2,000 pounds to 10,000 pounds. The latter sum is paid to the lord chancellor. The premier and the lord of the privy seal serve without pay.

BODIES

AND WRECKAGE TOLD SAD FATE OF BARGE IN LAKE SUPERIOR STORM.

As Well as Causing Anxiety as to the Safety of Two Other Vessels Overdue.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 21.—Anxiety as to the fate of the steamer C. F. Curtis and the lumber barge S. K. Marvin, which had not been heard from since they left Baraga, Mich., in the face of a heavy northwestern gale Wednesday morning was unabated early today. Eight bodies and quantities of wreckage washed ashore near Grand Marais yesterday afternoon, told the fate of the lumber laden barge. Annie M. Peterson, and gave rise to grave apprehension that the Curtis and Marvin likewise had gone down in the wintry storm which had swept Lake Superior for the last three days.

All three vessels were owned by the Edward Hines Lumber company of Chicago, and were headed for Tonawanda, the two barges in tow of the steamer. The Peterson carried a crew of seven and the finding of eight bodies led to the belief that one or both of the other boats had foundered. Life savers in power boats were searching the lake shore for wreckage, but report has reached here that the fragments already found came from any ship other than the Peterson.

Two of the bodies found were those of women.

The storm created havoc among lake shipping in the vicinity of Cheboygan, three freight steamers being driven ashore.

The steamer J. J. H. Brown ran ashore on River Point, Mud Lake, last night in the blinding snowstorm. The vessel was reported to be in no danger and tugs have been sent to her assistance.

Masts of up-bound steamers report strong ice in St. Mary's river and Mud Lake. Not for years has the ice formed so rapidly.

"There is only a track through Mud Lake," said Captain Canartney, of the steamer Sawyer. "One good cold night will freeze it up."

BETTER THAN SPANKY

Spanking does not cure child . . of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child. The chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Virtue is its own reward. Some fellows are too good to tell a lie, even to save a friend.

ECZEMA ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS—RESINOL CURED

Dec. 8, 1913: "I had eczema for 20 years. It started on me when I was but 13 years old and am now 34, and have suffered all these years. It started with small pimples all over my face, arms and hands. My hands would swell up so that I could not shut them, and I was almost blind. It would itch, then burn, and I had to keep the affected parts wrapped up so that I would not scratch them. I couldn't sleep at all—just walked the floor a whole night.

"I have tried many different remedies, and spent a large sum of money, but had no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment were recommended to me. They gave me great relief after the third application, and after using four jars of Resinol Ointment and three cakes of Resinol Soap, I am completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. H. E. Heager, Box 13, Dauphin, Pa.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good; and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."—Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

Care Should Be Exercised to Prevent Fires

Deputy State Fire Marshal John Baird returned today from Columbus where he had been in consultation with the state authorities regarding fire rule regulations in certain communities of the county.

State Fire Marshal E. R. Deffenbaugh is anxious to avoid any possible conflagration which might arise through carelessness or a lack of knowledge or preventative measures. With this end in view he is giving minute instructions to his deputies to be on their guard and assist in every possible manner as this is the season of year when fires are more prevalent, and as the holiday season advances it will be even more so, on account of the displays made by dealers in Xmas wares, decorations, etc.

While at the capital City Deputy Baird took up with the state department the matter of the fire at Jacksontown several days ago which probably had its origin in sparks being carried from the locomotive used on the narrow guage railroad to haul material along the National road. Deputy Baird was commended for the prompt action which he had taken requesting that screens be placed over the smoke stacks, and this will be done by the contractors, thus eliminating the fire danger to houses, barns and sheds along the right of way.

Now that the holiday season is fast approaching a warning is issued by State Fire Marshal Deffenbaugh to be careful in the arrangement of all inflammable material used in window and store decorations. All lights in close proximity should be guarded and the utmost care used by those in charge. A little caution exercised in the proper manner may be the means of saving life or great financial loss.

PROVISIONS FOR A COUNTY AGENT OF AGRICULTURE

In view of the large support which the county experiment farm proposition received at the recent election, even where it was lost, and of the exceptionally unfavorable conditions affecting the vote on this proposition at this time, the agricultural commission has adopted the following rules to govern counties in which the services of a county agricultural agent are desired:

1. A county agricultural improvement association to be organized of not less than 300 members, with a branch in each township of not less than 10 members.

2. This association to pay $1000 per annum for three years towards the salary and expense of the county agent, the money for this purpose to be provided by bankable paper to mature quarterly in advance during the three year period.

3. On condition of this guaranty the agricultural commission and the college of agriculture to undertake to provide the funds necessary to complete the payment of salary and expenses of a competent agricultural agent during this period.

4. In case any county shall establish and equip an experiment farm under the provisions of the county experiment farm law, then the county improvement association of such county shall be released from all payment for the support of the county agent and any unused funds shall be refunded to the association

OHIO STATE HAS MANY STUDENTS FROM LICKING CO.

When the Semi-Annual Ohio State University Directory came out, it gave seventy-four students registered from Licking county. Only two other counties gave more students to Ohio's big University. They are Franklin county, which really shuld not be counted and Montgomery county where Dayton is situated. Of course Montgomery county has the advantage of Licking for it has no other colleges in its bounds. Ohio State has fourteen colleges which include the important subjects of agriculture, medicine, engineering, law, pharmacy, etc. In these colleges it ranks high among the other institutions of the country.

Ohio State is one of the five largest institutions in the United States.

One of the speakers before the banquet of the Massachusetts society of the Sons of the American Revolution told of an experiment which he made several years ago. He first consulted historical records and ascertained the exact time of day that the British left for Lexington. He then started to go over the same ground. From a fast walk he soon found it necessary to break into a run and then a sprint. Then he found himself getting so far behind time that he had to take a trolley car. STOCKMEN

WILL ATTEMPT TO COMPEL STATE OFFICIALS TO MODIFY THE QUARANTINE.

Meeting Held in Lima This Afternoon—No New Developments in Local Situation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Lima, Nov. 21 Several hundred stockmen and breeders from all parts of the state met here this afternoon to hold a meeting of protest against the foot and mouth quarantine in counties where no traces of the disease has been found. What action the men will take is not known.

In spite of the information sent out from the office of the state agricultural commission that the quarantine would not be lifted, the stockmen believe that there is some way for them to compel the state to modify the quarantine so that cattle can be moved in counties not afflicted by the epidemic.

SLAUGHTER PITS IN LICKING COUNTY ARE NEARLY COMPLETED.

Before sundown Monday all of the cattle, sheep or hogs in Licking county which have the foot and mouth disease will have been slaughtered and placed under ground.

The last two pits are about completed and the inspectors in charge will superintend the slaughter and the disinfecting of the burial ground. One hundred pounds of lime is used to every seven head and in addition everything about the place is disinfected.

It is to be sincerely hoped that there will be no more cases reported in this county. Through the rigid quarantine established by the federal and state inspectors, with the co-operation of the farmers, the disease was kept from spreading and it may be that we will soon be rid of it entirely.

Dr. Faunteck, federal inspector in charge and Dr. Frame, state inspector in charge, have been on the job night and day and considering the fact that they are in charge of 20 counties in this district, they have accomplished wonders. No arrests have been made in this county for violations of quarantine regulations. In Muskingum county three such arrests have occurred and more are expected. Asbury Leasure of Pleasant Valley, east of the Licking county line, was placed under arrest Friday afternoon by a deputy sheriff charged with destroying a quarantine card and leaving his farm and going to Zanesville while under quarantine.

Two others named Berkhimer, father and son, were arrested charged with hauling sheep along the Sonora road and the East pike. Eight farmers in Falls and Hopewell township are now under quarantine.

TURKEY HATCHES TWO QUAILS ON DEVINE'S FARM

A remarkable sight can be witnessed in the barnyard of Thomas Devine at Nashport, east of this city. Mr. Devine is the owner of a turkey hen, which hatched out two quails from eggs left in its nest last July and which she has since mothered and raised on the hillside of the farm, coming to the barn occasionally during that period for feed. It is now her permanent home and she watches after her two little adopted offsprings just the same as if they had been of her own family. When a hawk would be flying over the place the mother turkey would spread her wings and the little quail would seek their shelter. The turkey calls and the little ones run to her and she is very solicitous for their welfare. Mr. Devine would not part with them for any consideration.

LUCAS COUNTY REPUBLICANS WANT RECOUNT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Toledo, Nov. 21.—Nine Republicans who were candidates for county offices at the recent election will institute suit for a recount of the votes cast for county and legislative candidates. The suit will be filed in common pleas court next week by Leonard C. Price secretary of the Republican county executive committee, on behalf of all the candidates.

Price said Saturday morning that the charges would cite irregularities and infractions of the election laws. Other candidates have been communicated with and are in accord with the action.

Lodges

K. OF P.

Newark Lodge No. 13.

The last meeting of Newark lodge was a very interesting one, about 75 of the members were present to witness the conferring of the Knight rank upon six Esquires.

One petition for membership was received and referred to the proper committee.

Next Thursday evening the Page rank will be conferred, also first nomination for officers for the term beginning Jan. 1.

Sunday evening, Nov. 28, the members will attend church at the North End Christian Union church.

Uniform Rank.

On Friday night Captain Wellinsky took the fancy drill team of Licking company No. 121 and accompanied the degree team of Roland lodge to Zanesville where a class of Esquires was made full fledged Knights of Pythias.

There will be a special meeting on Monday night and all are requested to be present especially the ones holding tickets for dance.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 24 the annual ball will be given in Assembly hall, music will be furnished by Marsh's orchestra. Every one knows the class of music furnished by this orchestra and all guests are assured that the music will be the best. The members of the drill team will put on fancy drills. All Sir Knights are requested to wear full dress uniforms. Do not forget to advertise dance so all friends of the order will be informed as to date, thereby not missing the event of the season.

Roland Lodge, K. of P.

The largest crowd for some time turned out Tuesday evening to see the knight rank conferred upon eight esquires, and most of them remained until the close although the hour was very late. The brothers on the sick list are doing nicely with the exception of Brother W. H. Rinehart, whose condition is critical. Brother Rinehart lives on Maple avenue and would be glad to see any of the boys. Brother Will Miles, the newly-elected county treasurer, furnished choice cigars with his compliments. Pages ranks next Tuesday evening.

Last evening fifty-two knights went to Zanesville, where Roland's degree team conferred the knight rank in full amplified form for McIntire lodge, and the drill team of the uniform rank gave an exhibition. Both were done in first-class manner and elicited numerous commendatory remarks. Refreshments were served the visitors by the Pythian sisters, and all report a fine time.

The cornerstone ceremonies last Sunday afternoon were carried out in detail and everything was highly satisfactory to the committee, except the weather, but notwithstanding the hovering clouds an enormous crowd turned out, showing the great interest which is being taken in this Pythian building. The castle committee feels more than ever that they will have the united support of all the brothers. They must have said support and need it.

Sunday evening, November 29, the members of both K. of P. lodges will attend divine services at the North End Christian Union, at the invitation of Rev. W. H. Baker, pastor of the church. Look for further announcement next week.

HOME GUARDS OF AMERICA.

Home Guards met in regular session last Wednesday evening with a fine attendance. We had visitors from Zanesville and with the lecture by Brother Muldering and the beautiful music by the orchestra, every one voted the home coming a grand success and another feature of the evening was the large class presented for initiation. After the work was gone through, there was an elegant lunch served by the committee. Next Wednesday is nomination night. Come out all who can and nominate your party for office.

NEW TICKET AGENT AT B. & O. STATION IS WILLIAM C. WILSON

William C. Wilson, formerly of this city but lately of Columbus, has been appointed to succeed F. C. Bartholomew as the B & O. ticket agent in this city, the latter gentleman having resigned to engage in the gas and oil well supply business in Pittsburg.

Mr. Wilson will move his family, consisting of wife and two children, to this city in the near future. The new ticket agent attended the public schools of this city, residing here for twelve years. He accepted service with the B. & O. in 1908, at Mt. Vernon and also at Sandusky and Columbus.

While residing at the Capital City Mr. Wilson was connected with the city passenger department. He is a young man of pleasing personality and no doubt will become popular with the B. & O. patrons.

Referee N. A. Tufts, Brown; umpire, D. L. Fultz, Brown; field judge, C. A. Williams, Pennsylvania; head linesman, F. W. Murphy, Brown. Time: four 15-minute periods.

Harvard outplayed Yale in the first period, scoring a touchdown on a 37-yard line. Her lateral pass offense was out the period Yale was back of her 42 yard line. Her later pass offense was thrown back by Harvard for repeated losses.

The second period started with Mahan making a run of 19 yards around left end. Francke made two yards and it was a first down on Yale's 9-yard line. On a delayed pass, Mahan took the ball to Yale's 3-yard line. There was a fumble on the next play. In the fumble the ball rolled over the Yale goal line and Francke fell on it. Hardwick again missed the goal.

Yale kicked off to Harvard's 40-yard line. Carter replaced Stillman. Waldent sent the ball to Bradlee and the ball was run out of bounds on Harvard's 22-yard line.

During the first half Harvard completely outplayed Yale in every department of the game. With the exception of a short flash at the beginning of the second period, Yale never threatened the Crimson goal, while the Cambridge team rolled up a score of 22 points which, with 30 minutes of play, equals the largest previous score ever made by Harvard against Yale. Yale found it almost impossible to hold the Crimson forwards in check, and was badly deceived by the involved milling of the ball behind the Harvard line, previous to the rush for the hole called for by the signals.

The rapid changing of the Harvard ends and secondary defense completely upset Yale's heretofore successful lateral passing of the ball. On the offense Harvard had little the better in penetrating the Yale line or skirting its ends. In both these plays the interference given the Harvard runner was almost invulnerable.

The Elis also developed a disastrous fumbling streak in the second period, two fumbles directly resulting in touchdowns. Great credit, however, must be given to the Harvard players for their keen following of the ball, and the remarkable sense which enabled them to instantly size up the situation and turn these fumbles to Harvard's advantage. In the first thirty minutes of play two forward passes were made. Harvard's short pass was good for a touchdown and Yale's resulted in a twenty-odd yard gain. Harvard made eleven first downs to Yale's two, punted twice to Yale's four times and was penalized 32 yards to Yale's 12.

Harvard added six more points to her score in the third period on a touchdown by Francke and a goal by Hordwick. The Yale offense, however, was better than earlier in the game and there were two long marches into Harvard's territory. The period ended with Yale having the ball on Harvard's 14-yard line.

Before the play stared Logan Parsons and Hardwick went back into the Harvard line. End of third period Harvard 28 Yale 0.

Moral Twisted.
The telephone in a physician's office rang madly the other day, relates Current Opinion, and the following conversation took place:
"We want the doctor, quick!"
"Who's sick at your house?"
"Everybody except me. I'd been naughty, so they wouldn't give me any of the nice mushrooms papa picked in the woods."

COMMISSIONERS VIEW CROTON PIKE; WORK IS STOPPED

Commissioners Ben B. Jones, Joseph H. Orr and Frank R. Dumm, drove over the Croton and Sunbury pike Friday afternoon on an inspection trip. The first course of slag has been finished for a distance of three miles and the top course for one mile. The commissioners ordered the work discontinued for the present on account of the cold weather.

The new pike may be used for its entire length and in the spring the top course can be finished. The pike was found to be in good condition and will be a great convenience for those residing in that part of the county. The Licking county commissioners have been very active in pike improvements and are receiving the commendation of every one for their progressiveness.

DECKER

ment had declared closed. A shot was fired across her bow to stop her. The captain of the Tennessee reports that it was not intended as an hostile act.

"A full investigation of the matter is being made, and explanations have been asked of the Turkish government. Previous attempts to communicate with Ambassador Morgenthau, in Constantinople, have led to delays of as much as a week."

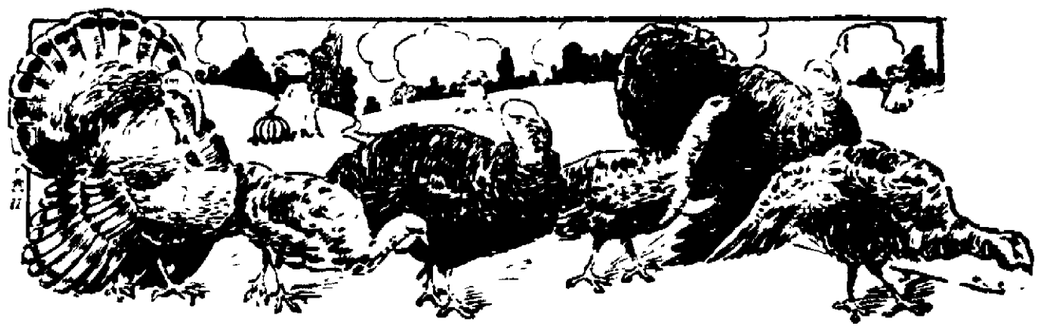

Secretary Daniels said he had received no further messages from Captain Decker since the first report and that he assumed the commander was awaiting investigation of Ambassador Morgenthau. Mr. Daniels does not think Captain Decker could possibly know what occurred on the shore as his launch immediately turned back. He said the contradictory phrase had been omitted in his announcement because it seemed only an expression of opinion which in itself was inexplicable.

Mr. Daniels stated that the order issued to the commanders of the North Carolina and Tennessee prohibiting them from taking any action without specific instructions from Washington was merely of a temporary character until the state department had completed its investigation of the particular incident connected with the firing on the Tennessee's launch. He said the usual wide discretion imposed on naval officers by the navy regulations would be in effect again later. There is no intention of withdrawing either vessel as some of the American residents are said to be concerned over the general conditions in Turkey. It was suggested in high official quarters today that some of the American consuls may have given the Turkish authorities the impression that in caring for the British and French interests they were expected to extend protection to the subjects of the entente powers. The task which the American government has undertaken for the belligerents in all countries, it was pointed out today, is merely a courtesy and extends simply to the point of exercising good offices as between the belligerents but does not obligate the neutral nation to afford any protection whatsoever.

OPPOSITION

TO RE-ELECTION OF SOME VICE PRESIDENTS OF AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR

Has Developed at Philadelphia Meeting—Carmen to be Assisted in Injunction Case.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Before the American Federation of Labor adjourns finally its thirty-fourth annual convention here today it will without doubt elect Samuel Gompers president for the thirtieth time. Frank Morrison, who was first elected secretary in 1897, will probably also be re-elected. There was gossip among the delegates to the effect that all the vice presidents may not be re-elected, but no names in opposition to any of the incumbents were mentioned.

The first matter to come before the convention today was the adoption of a resolution introduced by W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes of America, instructing the officers of the federation to give all the assistance possible to secure a satisfactory decision in the matter of the temporary injunction against Indianapolis street car men going on strike. The preamble to the resolution stated that the injunction issued by the federal court at Indianapolis forbids the carmen, "the right of exercising their constitutional liberty," as provided under the Clayton law passed by congress, which guarantees to the workers the right to suspend labor in order to protect their interests as wage workers without the interference of injunction; that the "temporary injunction may stand for an indefinite period," and that it may be necessary to carry the case to the United States Supreme court in order to test the constitutionality of the Clayton law.

submitting the amendments in 1913, but made no provision for later years.

This point also is involved in the Anti-Saloon league's suit filed this week in the Franklin county common pleas court, to enjoin the state liquor licensing commission from appointing license officials in dry counties under the new home rule amendment. Preliminary argument in that case, brought in the name of Charles B. Hockett, Bellefontaine piano dealer, will be heard before Judge E. B. Kinkead of that court Monday.

Attorney General Hogan's contention in the argument before the court yesterday is that since the secretary of state is not given specific authority to question results certified by county election officials, it would be dangerous to good government for him to usurp this power or for the supreme court to "embezzle authority" from the legislature by giving it to him.

Former Governor Judson Harmon criticised the action brought by the Anti-Saloon league, charging its purpose was mainly to create public sentiment, instead of to settle a puzzling legal question. He argued as counsel for Secretary Graves.

REV. W. D. WARD TOOK THE TEXT "SAVED BY GRACE"

Perhaps the most interesting service of the series at the Central Church of Christ was the service Friday night. A fine audience was present in spite of counterattractions. Rev. Ward's sermon on the theme "Saved by Grace," was one of the very best of the week. When the invitation was extended two responded.

The service Sunday morning will be especially for young people. Teachers are requested to urge their Bible school classes to remain for the entire morning service.

Mothers and fathers are asked to see that the children are present at the morning worship and remain for the sermon. The subject will be, "In the Day of Thy Youth."

The "Sunbeam" chorus will sing Sunday night. A large adult chorus and orchestra will also lead in the music.

The sermon subject for Sunday night is "The Only Creed That Needs No Revision." The "Question Box" is creating much interest. Anybody is at liberty to ask any uestion, Biblical or relating to the church or Christian life. Write out your question and place in the box in the vestibule.

Services continue all next week. Everybody welcome.

INTERESTING TALK BY MISS SHIELDS AT TAYLOR HALL

Miss Shields, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Lahore, India, spoke at Taylor hall Friday evening to a small but most attentive and responsive audience. Miss Shields told of the great need for workers to carry on the work already organized. Today seventeen secretaries are needed to carry on this work already established. There are 161 associations with a membership of 10,000. Work is among three classes of girls, European, Turosian, mixture of European and Indian, and Indian.

Because of persistent belief in caste, leadership is impossible among native girls as yet. Some consecrated Christian Indian women of culture and education have tried to assume leadership, only to be forced by conditions to give it up. She becomes a social outcast in the eyes of her people. Therefore for the present, leaders must come from England and North America.

Ohio has a wonderful record. She sent the first secretary to India, Miss Agnes Gale Hill. Cleveland three years ago sent another, whose support is carried entirely by Cleveland Y. W. C. A. The Y. W. C. A. students of Ohio and West Virginia, are sending another as soon as she can safely go. The city association supports Miss Florence Dennison in Bombay, and will soon send another. Then Ohio will be supporting four of nine American secretaries in India.

Already nearly thirteen whole days of the pledged twenty are taken. These days are being marked off on a large calendar in the office of the association, 15 North Fourth street.

This service is a very important one, and all parents, teachers, and children are urged to be present, the evangelist is said to have more influence with young people than any other man now at work in this special line. The Atlanta Journal says: "Lee Starke has had more power with our young men than any other man in the city."

EXHIBIT

OF MASTERPIECES OF ART WORK WILL BE FEATURE IN GRANVILLE NEXT WEEK.

There Will be Two Hundred Pieces Shown — Proceeds to be Devoted to Public Schools.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., Nov. 21.—The next thing to engage the attention and interest of patriotic Granville people will be the Elson Art Exhibit to be open Thanksgiving week in the Municipal building. Great preparations have been made for the success of this project which is entirely in the interest of the public school. Prizes have been offered to the pupils and to the room selling the greatest number of tickets. Opportunity will be given the school children of seeing the 200 masterpieces free of charge. Those below the high school will go, as schools, at different times under the guidance of their teachers. Of these any who desire to see the pictures again, will be charged reduced admission. All proceeds of the exhibition, outside necessary expenses, will be spent on the purchase of pictures for the different school rooms. This is the greatest opportunity Granville has had for seeing the best that art can offer, right here at home. These 200 masterpieces represent Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Italian, French, English and American art. The exhibit will be in Granville for four days, beginning Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5:30 each afternoon and from 6:30 to 9:30. In behalf of the schools, the teachers solicit donations of pictures from individuals, clubs, societies, or any organizations desiring to see more art in the public schools. Any picture purchased for this purpose from the Elson Art Publication company will be marked with a brass plate inscribed with the name of the donor.

Seventy-five ladies of the Baptist Social Union were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Howard Darrow, Friday afternoon, November 20, from half past two to half past five o'clock. The president, Mrs. Burton Case, presided at the business session and paid a high tribute to the hostess, whom she had known since her Shepardson College days. Following the business, a brief but most enjoyable musical program was given by Miss Brooks and Miss Brown, the new members of the Denison Conservatory. Miss Brooks, who possesses a rich contralto voice of great range and remarkable flexibility, sang three numbers with charming effect, "My Soul," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond, "Will o' the Wisp," by Spross, and "Birthday" by Cowen. Miss Brooks gained fresh laurels and made many new friends by her gracious performance. Miss Brown gave two numbers in masterly style: the Rigoletto Quartette by Verdi-Liszt, and the Melody in G, by Porter. She shows marvelous technique, and thorough musicianly qualities, and was heartily recalled. The rooms in the stately old home occupied by the Darrows, are spacious and the audience was comfortably seated in the living room, while the front drawing room served as the stage for the performers. At the close of the program, refreshments were served in the dining room, where at a beautifully equipped table the hostess poured tea and coffee. The cups and dainty sandwiches were passed by Mrs. R. S. Edwards, Mrs. T. S Johnson, Misses Mary McKibben, Mary Hunt, Judith Nichols and Josephine Darrow. The hostesses for this most delightful entertainment of the year were: Mrs. Darrow, Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, Mrs. Helen Hunt, Mrs. Irving Kull.

Miss Lula C Brown of the Denison Conservatory, left this morning for Columbus, O., where she will give a series of organ and piano concerts. Miss Brown's services as concert player are in great demand.

Rev. Millard Brelsford, pastor of the Baptist church, will speak Sunday morning at 10 o'clock on the "Interrelations of Life"; in the evening at 7 o'clock, on "What Makes a Nation Great." In connection with this topic he will discuss the question, "Has Christianity Failed in Europe?" Music, under the direction of Mr. Eschman, will be rendered by a large chorus choir. An invitation is extended to the public for both services.

A report from the Granville Public Library states that a new consignment of books has been received from the State Library, and is now ready for use. There are sixty volumes, mostly of interesting reading for young people. Over twenty volumes have been added this month by gifts, comprising books of travel, history, biography and fiction and several of poetry. A friends loans to the library three volumes of special interest just now: Chancellor von Buelow's "Imperial Germany," Price Collier's "Germany and the Germans," and Prof. Munsterberg's "The War and America."

Last evening at 7 o'clock, the regular Fall Extra program of the Cicero Literary society was presented to the public. This is one time in the year when the members of the society attempt, in a formal way, to show the real character of their literary efforts. The following was the excellent program rendered: Chaplain's Exercises, A. C. Wyse; Essay, J. H. Vawter; Declamation, H. G. Spencer; Music, K. L. Catlett, H. G. Hopkins and D. Speicher; Oration, H. C. Phillips; Debate, S. Collett and S. Furrow; Song, E. Bowdenweber; Shield, L. White, C. Wolff, S. Chessman.

TOLEDO WRESTLING.

Toledo, Nov. 21.—Johnny Billeter defeated Mahomad, a Chicago welterweight, here last night in two falls. The Chicagoan threw Billeter for the first fall in 26 minutes. Billeter won the next two falls by toe holds in 11 and 11 minutes.
